

Product Testing Volunteer – Peterborough

Our returns department handles faulty products in order to provide people with working replacements and to improve the existing technology for future users.

As a Product Testing and Returns Volunteer, you will offer useful feedback on the suitability of products for our Webshop and catalogue.

Where?

Peterborough

When?

Minimum 2 hours to 1 day per week, during weekdays office hours

What will you be doing?

As a Product Tester Volunteer you'll perform the following tasks:

- Become familiar with the range of Action on Hearing Loss products
- Work alongside the Returns Team to unpack returned products
- Support staff to identify faults and record these on the database
- Refer all enquires outside your knowledge base to experienced team members

Why do we need you?

We provide a range of assistive technologies and devices to the Deaf and hard of hearing community. We depend on our fantastic volunteers to help us run this important service and we need you!

What skills do you need?

Here's what we think could be beneficial:

- Knowledge of, or willingness to learn about assistive technologies
- An interest and knowledge of gadgets and technology
- Problem solver
- Punctual, reliable and approachable
- Ability to work unsupervised at times

What support will you get?

We value your time and commitment and want to make sure you are enjoying volunteering with us.

In a recent survey, 92% of our volunteers would recommend Action on Hearing Loss as a good place to volunteer!

Regular support will be given by your own Volunteer Manager especially in the early stages of your role as you settle in. You will also receive informal support from other Action on Hearing Loss volunteers and staff as you work together.

Here's what our volunteers say!

"I enjoy meeting people and helping them with their queries. Hearing loss can cause frustration and isolation, leading to loss of confidence. If I'm able to improve someone's quality of life by sharing information or raising awareness of how others can help, then that's very satisfying." RB

What training is offered?

Action on Hearing Loss offers full, on-going training for all volunteers including an induction programme and further training specific to the volunteering role. This may include:

- Training in Understanding Hearing Loss

Product Testing Volunteer – Peterborough

- Volunteers also have the opportunity to attend other training relevant to their role

What will you gain?

Our volunteers receive the following benefits:

- Training – learning new skills, and gaining up-to-date knowledge of issues affecting people confronting deafness, tinnitus and hearing loss
- Experience – meeting new people in different situations, building new friendships with other Action on Hearing Loss volunteers
- Fulfilment– knowing that the time you provide will make a real difference to the people we support, and raising deaf awareness throughout society as a whole
- Expenses – all reasonable expenses incurred as a result of your volunteering will be reimbursed according to the Action on Hearing Loss expenses policy
- Opportunity to try other volunteering roles locally with Action on Hearing if available

Transport

You may need to be able to travel locally, whether by car or public transport. All reasonable travel expenses will be reimbursed, according to the Action on Hearing Loss Travel and Subsistence Policy.
