In addition, students on programmes validated by partner universities will also be subject to those universities' regulations and codes.
- 3.2 Conduct in relation to this code means conduct on UCP premises or during UCP activities, together with conduct that takes place elsewhere where the reputation of UCP may be brought into disrepute.
- 3.3 Failure to observe these Codes may be regarded as a breach of discipline. Students found in breach of discipline will be subject to the procedures set out below.
- 3.4 This policy has been designed to meet the requirement of the QAA UK Quality Code for Higher Education and particularly Advice and Guidance on:
 - i. Assessment and Concerns,
 - ii. Complaints and Appeals

2. PURPOSE

- 2.1. The purpose of this policy is to outline the responsibilities and procedures involved in dealing with a student disciplinary concern that has been raised, together with possible outcomes that can be applied.

3. SCOPE

- 3.5 This policy applies to all Higher Education provision offered by University Centre Peterborough. This also applies to sub contractual provision
- 3.6 This policy and procedure are only intended for use where the behaviour, disruption or risk presented by the student is perceived to be of a serious or potentially serious nature.
- 3.7 This will include situations where a student appears unaware of the consequences of their behaviour on others e.g., causing disruption or distress, and/or where concerns exist about the safety of the student or of others.

5. RESPONSIBILITIES

- 5.1 Under UCP's Policies and Procedures, the Academic Director is ultimately responsible for the maintenance of student discipline and for the suspension or expulsion of students on disciplinary grounds. The Academic Director may delegate his or her authority to HE Managers or the Deputy Director with a level of seniority and experience appropriate to the circumstances of each particular situation.

6. RISK ANALYSIS

- 6.1 This policy is required to ensure that any impact of a student's conduct on others and the institution is fairly evaluated and dealt with by the institution as bound by UK legislation. This policy is dependent on the student communication and evidence.

Analyse risks of non-adherence to this policy

- 6.2 Failure to adhere to this policy could lead to academic failure of students, complaints and in extreme cases, legal action with regard to the Equality Act 2010.

Staff training needed

- 6.3 All staff involved in teaching, enrolling, supporting students and offering IAG are required to undertake annual training delivered by the HE Student Support Team to outline the support that is available and the process by which students can be referred for support.

7. DATA PROTECTION

- 7.1 UCP complies with the provisions of the General Data Protection Regulation Data Protection Act, 2018. As such, applicant and student data are treated as confidential by all staff involved in this process and are not divulged unnecessarily or inappropriately. However, the aforementioned Act requires UCP to release certain information to UK authorities upon request in order to assist those authorities with the prevention and detection of fraud or other crimes. We will release the requested information on receipt of an appropriate request from UK authorities such as (but not limited to) the Police, Home Office (for immigration and related matters), local authorities, and the Department for Work and Pensions. We may use anonymised data collected as part of an individual's application and enrolment for the purpose of fulfilling statistical and reporting requirements.

8. PROCEDURE

- 8.1 We will deal with any complaint about students' behaviour in the following way.

- a. Any complaint made by a student or a member of our staff or by a member of staff of an agency providing a placement will, in the first instance, be referred to the appropriate HE Manager of the student concerned. If this is not appropriate for any reason, it will be referred to another HE Manager or nominated Manager. Any complaint must normally be made within 20 working days of the incident it is about.
- b. A complaint made by a member of the public will, in the first instance, be referred to the Academic Director.
- c. A complaint made by one student about another will be dealt with using this procedure.
- d. Unless there are exceptional circumstances, a member of staff can only make a complaint if they have previously given the student a warning, either face to face or in writing, about the behaviour the complaint relates to.
- e. Any complaint about a student must be made to us in writing. We will give, or send by recorded delivery to both addresses on record, a copy of the complaint to the student. If the student is under 18 years of age, we will give, or send by recorded delivery, a copy to the parents or guardian of the student and explain the action taken.

9. Role of the Deputy Director

- a. The Deputy Director will appoint a member of staff to act on their behalf in the investigation or any other part of this procedure. This investigation will normally be carried out within 15 working days.
- b. The Deputy Director has the power to impose one of the following penalties.
 - i. A formal verbal warning in which you will be told the reason for the caution and that it is a stage of the disciplinary procedure. This may be delegated to the relevant HE Manager
 - ii. A written warning which will give details of the complaint, the improvement needed and, if appropriate, the timescale. The student must sign and return a copy of the written warning as a record that they have received and understood it. We will keep records of all warnings for 12 months after which time if there is no further breach or warnings this will be removed.
 - iii. A fine set by the UCP Council.
 - iv. A student may have to pay an amount toward any damage, loss or harm we have suffered or suffered by an agency providing a placement. The amount will not be more than a maximum set by the UCP Council. If this amount has to be paid to another person or organisation, this will not affect the student's rights in law.
 - v. We will keep records of this for 12 months unless a further complaint is under investigation.

If the student does not accept the Deputy Director's decision, the case will go to the Student Disciplinary Committee.

- c. If the Deputy Director believes the complaint is serious enough, they may do the following
 - i. They may decide that the complaint should be passed to the Secretary for the Student Disciplinary Committee to consider. The Deputy Director must identify which parts of the code of conduct the student has broken. The Deputy Director will provide:
 - a written record of the complaint which is signed by the person making the complaint;
 - a report of the investigation;
 - any evidence the report is based on;
 - any statements that go with the report will normally be prepared by the individuals concerned and signed and dated by them.

- ii. The Deputy Director may recommend to the Academic Director that the student is suspended. If the complaint is deemed serious enough the Academic Director may recommend that the student is excluded. If the complaint warrants expulsion the complaint will be passed to the Student Discipline Committee for resolution. The student can appeal against a suspension of three weeks or more. When suspension is considered a risk assessment will be undertaken to determine the impact on all parties.

10. Procedure when a complaint is referred to the Student Discipline Committee

- 10.1 The committee secretary will refer the complaint to the Student Discipline Committee as long as they are satisfied that the complaint is not of a trivial nature and does relate to student discipline or professional conduct.
- 10.2 At least five working days before the hearing, the committee secretary will give the student, the HE Manager or designated other who undertook the investigation and the person making the complaint, a copy of any documents which will be placed before the committee.
- 10.3 The committee secretary will do the following:
 - i. They will call a meeting of the committee normally 25 working days from the day on which they have received the written report in section 4 above (except in trivial cases or those relation to academic matters which may not be referred to the committee.)
 - ii. They will ask the student if they object to the Student Officer, or their nominee being at the committee meeting.
 - iii. At least 15 working days before the meeting, the committee secretary will give notice to the Student Officer of the date, time and place of the meeting.
 - iv. 15 working days before the meeting, the committee secretary will give notice, in writing and by hand, to the person making the complaint or, if this is not possible, by recorded or special delivery to their last known term-time and home address. The notice will explain that a sitting of the committee is being held to consider their complaint. It will give the date, and the time and the place of the sitting. It will also explain that they need to attend, and they may bring a friend.
 - v. At least 15 working days before the meeting, the committee secretary will give notice, in writing and by hand, or, if this is not possible, by recorded or special postal delivery to the last known local and home address of the student the complaint is about. The notice will give details of:

- 12.2 The committee secretary will keep a record of the proceedings and may appoint someone to take minutes.
- 12.3 If two or more students are being complained about, the committee will decide whether the interests of any one of them would be answered by hearing the complaint against them jointly. If the committee believes that the person's interests might be affected or that the proceedings could not be easily or fairly heard against two or more students together, they will hear the matter individually.
- 12.4 In deciding whether a witness will be called in alone or with others, the committee will decide.
